By permission of his counsel, Harry K. Thaw, who killed Stanford White at Madison Square roof garden, New York, yesterday gave out a statement declaring that he is not insane; Mr. Lederer, the theatrical manager, declares that when Thaw was following up Evelyn Nesbit, the chorus girl, he acted like he was crazy; Edna McClure denies that she said Thaw threatened White.——Hon. At the Greensboro convention the Republicans called each other "liar, rascal, scoundrel, etc." Well, they know each other better than anybody else.

A contemporary says it bears repeating that "even the worm will turn." However, some people refuse to believe that the still worm will turn out anything chemically pure.

Secretary Taft was very much gratified that so many Democrats turned out to hear his Greensboro speech. Why, did he suppose that North Carolina Democrats had no curiosity?

The Hepburn, Dolliver, Roosevelt-Tillman railway rate bill passed at the late session of Congress will go into effect August 28th. It can not be stated how long before the Supreme Court will allow it to be in effect.

The Princess of Wales, England's next queen, prides herself on being a good housekeeper and cook. A lot of queens in America think it is a feather in their cap to declare that they never cooked a "meals o' vittuals" in their lives.

A New York paper says Justice McLean of the New York Supreme Court disposed of 92 divorce cases in four days recently. Even if it is so that he can settle the troubles of so many other people, married men pretend to believe that when the Judge goes home he has "to eat whatever is set before him."

Fifty years ago Mr. James Scarlett and Miss Sarah Tawkes had a lovers' quarrel and played quits. They have decided to marry soon, and we've got money that says that Mr. Scarlett will find out that although he has induced her to change her name he will have to put up with a heap when Miss Sarah talks.

[illegible]ABLE REPORT

Interesting Review of Past Years Work in Rural Schools of New Hanover

BY COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT

Annual Summary Submitted to County Board of Education at Regular Meeting Monday Afternoon—Consolidation of Districts.

The desirability of a consolidation of districts and the establishment of a graded school system in the country, some observations as to compulsory education, interesting statistics as to the taxable property of the white and colored races with especial reference to the school fund and a review of the work in all the schools during the past year are among the salient features in the very interesting annual report made by Prof. Washington Catlett, County Superintendent of Public Instruction, to the County Board of Education at its annual meeting Monday afternoon. The report was received by the Board with thanks and was ordered placed on record as a very valuable paper. The report, in part, is as follows:

To the Honorable Board of Education of New Hanover County:

Gentlemen—I have the honor to submit the following annual report of the schools under my supervision.

There are 16 districts in the county, including the two city districts, leaving 14 under my charge. There are 14 districts with white schools and 12 with negro schools. Two white schools employ two teachers.

The census for city and country, 7,581, a gain of 34 over last year's census, 7,547. The figures are as follows:

	White.	Black.	Total.
Rural	730	917	1,647
City	3,128	2,806	5,934
Total	3,858	3,723	7,581

This shows a gain in the country whites of 38 and a loss of one negro over last year.

Enrollment—The children enrolled in the rural schools were 493 out of a census of 730, being about 67½ per cent. The negroes enrolled 690 out of 917, about 75 per cent. The city schools enrolled 2,033 whites from a census of 3,128, about 65 per cent.; negroes 1,199 from a census of 2,806, about 43 per cent. This shows that although the children have greater ease of access and more attractive

ADAMS AND SAWYER

Petitions Being Circulated Asking Pardon for Mutineers in Jail Under Sentence of Death—To the President.

The first steps toward securing a pardon for Adams and Sawyer, the negroes under sentence in the county jail here for their part in the mutiny and murder aboard the schooner Harry A. Berwind last October, were taken yesterday by Messrs. George L. Peschau and George Rountree, counsel for the prisoners. The effort is in the way of securing signatures to a petition to the President of the United States for a pardon upon the strength of the confession made by the negro Scott upon his execution here last week. The attorneys are asking only the signatures of men of responsibility and those capable of judging of the merits of their case and quite a number of these were secured yesterday. Others will be affixed to the petition to-day and it will then be submitted to Judge Purnell and District Attorney Skinner for their approval or rejection. An effort may also be made to get the signatures of members of the jury who convicted the negroes in the Federal Court. This will require some time and expense, as they live in all parts of the district and are hard to reach.

One of the prominent signers of the petition yesterday was William J. Bellamy, Esq., counsel for Scott, who, of course, made a study of the case and whose signature was readily sought by the attorneys for to the other negroes. A number of other lawyers also affixed their signatures to the petition, which will be forwarded or taken to the President probably next week. It is not known yet whether the endorsement of the Judge and District Attorney can be secured or not. They have not, however, refused to sign it, the attorneys say, as has been reported. If the effort for an absolute pardon fails, it is understood that commutation to life imprisonment will be sought.

AMID GREAT DISORDER ADAMS IS NOMINATED

Republican Convention in Greensboro Yesterday Little Short of Howling Mob—Wallace and King Seated From New Hanover

Greensboro, N. C., July 10.—The Republican State Convention here to-day was marked by great disorder and actual physical violence was really narrowly averted. From one of the delegates a 38-calibre Smith and Wesson pistol, fully loaded, was taken. The policeman who arrested the delegate, who was A. S. Patterson, of Swain county, said that the delegate was in the act of drawing the pistol on a fellow delegate from Swain when arrested.

At the very outset evidences of the bitter factional fight in the party were apparent. Blackburn men unhesitatingly hissed Adams and Adams delegates returned the compliment in kind with a vengeance. Several of Adams' rulings brought cries of "Gag Rule" from Blackburn men and so overwhelming was the sentiment against one of the chairman's rulings that he was obliged to withdraw it and yield to the Blackburn forces.

The final show-down came in connection with the report of the credentials committee. This committee which had only one Blackburn man on it, reported in favor of unseating the Blackburn delegation in every contested county. Thomas Settle, of Buncombe, amended it so as to seat both sets of delegates in every contested county. The vote on the amendment was the test vote. It was 462 against Settle's amendment and 384 for it, and showed that the Adams forces were in control of the convention.

The hall was in an uproar from start to finish and although lady stenographers were present, profane language was indulged in. The chairman was powerless to keep order. He frequently sat in abject despair, absolutely unable to quell the tumult.

Virils Lusk, of Buncombe, was made permanent chairman by about the same majority as that by which the Settle amendment was defeated. The vote on the chairmanship resulted in 476 votes being cast for Adams, 297 for Blackburn and 84 for Harris. Adams was, therefore, nominated on the first ballot. At 8:50 the convention adjourned for supper and at 10:30 it met and adopted a platform.

Messrs. T. E. Wallace and S. M. King were seated as delegates from New Hanover in the convention, their credentials being contested by insurgent delegates Forshee and Herring, of Wilmington.

(By Associated Press.)

Greensboro, N. C., July 10.—The Republicans of North Carolina today opened their convention in this city with some 1,500 delegates and alternates in attendance, the largest gathering in the State since 1876.

The entire day's session was taken up with routine business and the report of the credentials committee.

Interest in the convention centered in the selection of the next State chairman to succeed ex-Judge Spencer B. Adams. Adams was a candidate as was E. Spencer Blackburn, Representative in Congress from the eighth district and leader of the so-called insurgent forces.

The convention met at noon after a morning's unparalleled activity on the part of the leaders and their lieutenants of the opposing factions. The organization of the convention was made tedious because of the number of protests filed with the credentials committee. Judge Adams spoke for half an hour extolling the virtues of the Republican party. Following his address great disorder prevailed in the "insurgent" ranks in an effort to have Congressman Blackburn address the meeting. At 1:30 o'clock the convention adjourned until 2:30 o'clock.

The organization candidate was re-elected chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee tonight upon the first ballot. Judge Robert M. Douglas, a son of Steven A. Douglas and father of Robert D. Douglas, who was yesterday appointed postmaster of Greensboro, was nominated for State Corporation Commissioner and a platform endorsing the administration of President Roosevelt was adopted.

After the nomination of Judge Douglas, Mr. Blackburn in an impassioned speech urged that the party get together in the interests of harmony and moved that the election of Judge Adams to the State chairmanship be made unanimous. The action was carried with enthusiasm.

The regular quarterly drill of the Wilmington Light Infantry, for the handsome gold medal offered by the commissioned officers for the best drilled soldier in the company took place at the armory last night and was a highly interesting affair from a military standpoint. FAYETTEVILLE WINS

Congressional Convention of Sixth District Will Be Held There July 23rd.

MEETING HERE YESTERDAY

Executive Committee Votes Four to Three in Favor of Upper Cape Fear City—Wilmington's Strong Bid—New Hanover Delegates.

Fayetteville is the place and Thursday, July 26th., is the date for the Sixth District Congressional Convention. These matters were fixed at a meeting of the executive committee of the district held yesterday at noon at the office of the chairman, Col. George L. Morton, in the Southern Building, this city. The vote was four to three in favor of Fayetteville, and there was no contest as to the date, all agreeing that two weeks hence was not too short a time for all the candidates to get their fences in order. The meeting was attended by all members of the committee except Senator E. F. McCulloch, of Bladen, and his proxy was held and voted by Col. Morton, the chairman. Other members besides those mentioned were: Col. E. F. MacRae, of Robeson; Q. K. Nimocks, Esq., of Fayetteville; H. C. Moffitt, of Columbus; R. G. Taylor, of Harnett, and George H. Bellamy, of Brunswick. Col. MacRae is secretary of the committee.

The only matter upon which the committee was not unanimous was the question of the place of meeting. There were present to urge the claims of Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach Marsden Bellamy, Esq., Mr. G. Herbert Smith, Capt. E. L. Hinton, of the Seashore Hotel, and Mr. A. B. Skelding, general manager of the Consolidated Company. To represent Fayetteville were Messrs. J. B. Underwood, Jr., and Mr. C. J. Cooper, who reinforced their argument in favor of the upper Cape Fear city by a very cordial telegram of invitation from Mayor Powell. In addition to those named, Messrs. C. W. Worth, George R. French, Sam Bear, Jr., and other prominent Wilmington business men were present. The question had already been decided, however, and no amount of argument would have altered the result. The vote was as follows:

For Wrightsville Beach—Morton, of New Hanover; McCulloch, of Bladen, by proxy; Moffitt, of Columbus.

For Fayetteville—Nimocks, of Fay-

COAST LINE YARDS

Streets and Wharves Committee Took a Look Over Situation With Officials—Convicts Begin Grading For Laying of Tracks.

Chairman Martin O'Brien and Aldermen W. H. Yopp and J. A. Karr, composing the Streets and Wharves Committee of the city, by invitation of General Manager Royall, of the Atlantic Coast Line, yesterday at noon went out to the old Union Depot and inspected the work of building the mammoth railroad terminals in that vicinity which has just been undertaken by the company and which is progressing very satisfactorily. In order that no friction might occur later, the railroad officials desired to show the gentlemen of the committee just what was sought to be done and to get their sanction to certain grading and change of tracks that is necessary to the big improvement.

The party went out to the construction on a special car and great pains were taken to show the representatives of the city what would be done. The plans of the railroad company for the work appeared perfectly satisfactory to the committee and the work was authorized to proceed until report is made to the Board of Aldermen. The committee, however, anticipates no trouble with the railroad people, and members of it upon their return yesterday expressed satisfaction that the A. C. L. is beginning a work of so much importance to the business interests of this city. The convicts are camped out about the county home and will begin grading for the new yards at once. Much of the preliminary work has already been done. The yards will have a capacity of 4,000 cars and when the dummy line is made to belt the city, which the company has determined to accomplish, the shipping facilities here will be second to none in the country.

SECRETARY TAFT AT GREENSBORO.

Judging from all accounts of Secretary Taft's visit to Greensboro and his speech at the opera house on Monday night, President Roosevelt's ponderous cabinet member has not taken away with him any good impression of either the Republicans or the Democrats of North Carolina.

The Greensboro opera house was packed with an immense crowd to hear Secretary Taft's speech. In fact the house could not hold half the crowd that tried to get in, but it appears that a good sprinkling of Democrast managed to get seats or standing room. It was a noisy audience and the Greensboro correspondents say that the crowd was little less than disrespectful to the Secretary of War. In the first place it is said that his speech was marred by the strenuosity of Blackburn's cohorts who lost no opportunity to yell for Blackburn, while that individual didn't miss any chance to pose and get into the limelight of admiration for the benefit of his heelers and claquers. It is even stated that he waited till Secretary Taft had been speaking some minutes, and then made a spectacular entry and stalked down the aisle before the admiring gaze of his adherents. His supporters frequently broke in so loud with calls for Blackburn as to interrupt Secretary Taft's speech. It is furthermore stated that while Blackburn's friends shouted and called, the Adams men hissed, during all of which Secretary Taft waited with patience.

Such was his treatment by the Republicans, but it came the turn of the Democrats to break loose when the Secretary in the course of his speech alluded to Bryan. The name of the Nebraskan was all that was needed to get an immediate response with a roar of cheers and long continued applause that was "visibly embarrassing" to the speaker. He stood and waited for the Democratic ardor and enthusiasm to cool, but evidently he was nettled by it for after a Bryan outbreak the Secretary blurted out: "There are Democrats enough here to need some good instruction." It was disgraceful for the Republicans to act in such a noisy, disrespectful manner, and it might have been bad taste for the Democrats to have exploded when Bryan's name was mentioned, but the Secretary was surely inviting yells when he threw the Bryan firebrand into a red hot crowd like a bunch of North Carolina Democrats.

Secretary Taft's introductory was as follows:

"Republicans of North Carolina:

"When your committee did me the honor to ask me to address the Republican Convention of North Carolina, they advised me that the political situation was such that if a proper effort were made at the coming election, it would be possible to carry the State for the Republican party, and that in that effort they felt they were entitled to the sympathy and assistance of Republicans throughout the country. The appeal had convincing weight with me, for I believe that nothing that could happen in the politics of this country, would work greater advantage to the country at large, and to the South in particular, than the breaking up of what has been properly known as the 'Solid South.' I say this in no partisan spirit, for I am not one of those who think that this result would necessarily increase the probability of the continuance in power of the Republican party. The solidity of the South, while it has assured to the Democratic party a certain number of Congressmen and a certain number of electoral votes, has in a measure furnished its own antidote by restraining many voters in the North who might have left the Republican party but for what they regard as the injustice and danger of Southern political conditions."

The speaker then went on at length, making a speech that required an hour or more for its delivery, or reading, as it appears that Secretary Taft read his printed speech. He attacked the suffrage laws of North Carolina and other Southern States only from the standpoint that they do not disfranchise the white voter but discriminate against the negro voter. He expressed favor for regulation of suffrage but contended that the illiterate white man should be placed on the same footing with the illiterate negro. He bemoaned the "Solid South" but not many people will agree with him that "nothing that could happen in the politics of this country, would work greater advantage to the country at large, and to the South in particular, than the breaking up of what has been popularly known as the "Solid South." The South seems to have known its business better than Secretary Taft knows it, and it would be content to let the North go Republican till doomsday rather than fall into the hands of a party that would have long ago negroized and amalgamated the South if it had been allowed to do it. Secretary Taft can weep if he wants to because the South is solid but the South is content to go on preserving itself from the Republican party, as it is known both in the South and as the predominant part of the government.

Secretary Taft gave the Republican party of North Carolina somewhat a roast. After complaining of the control of the South by the Democratic party he said:

"How, then, can we declare our independence of the Democratic party? This answer in several States has undoubtedly much force and truth. Of course the difficulty might be obviated if some Moses were to arise in each State and create a new Republican party; but this end is difficult to achieve. In North Carolina and Tennessee, however, there is a full party organization, and the Republicans in those States have in times past shown that their numbers are formidable enough to create hope of success in elections. How, then, can success be achieved? I submit to you, Republicans of North Carolina, that you can have no prospect of success and do not deserve success unless you show in the nominees of your conventions and in the men whom you put forward to lead you, that you fully recognize the obligation that you are under as a party to give to the people of North Carolina an opportunity to chose able, honest and worthy men for public officers. You must convince the voters at the polls that you are not merely an office-seeking party, but that you are laboring with all the energy that in you lies to elevate the politics of the State and to furnish a proper and safe refuge for the Democratic voter who has become tired of the incompetency and the abuses arising from the permanent control for many decades of one political patry.

"I do not wish to seem ungracious, but I must be candid. In my judgment the Republican party in North Carolina would be much stronger as a voting party if all the Federal offices were filled by Democrats. Of course, I cannot deny that a wish to fill public office is an honorable aspiration, whether by appointment or by election, but when all hope of choice by the people is abandoned, and everything is given over to influencing a distant appointing power to choose particular men to perform official functions in a community politically hostile to those men, the result is not good for the men or the community. The struggle for Federal political office producing, as it does, jealousies and strifes and disappointments, paralyzes united effort to make the party strong at the polls and worthy of success. The men upon whose change of vote success in the election depends are not particularly interested in the success of one faction or another, but they are interested that their votes shall be cast for those candidates for local and State offices whose character, devotion to duty, intelligence and ability will assure good local and State government, and for those representatives in the National Congress who will faithfully and courageously carry out the high principles of the National Republican party with a due regard to the particular interests of the district and State they represent. As long, however, as the Republican party in the Southern States shall represent little save a factional chase for Federal offices in which business men and men of substance in the community have no desire to enter and in the result of which they have no interest, we may expect the present political conditions of the South to continue."

The Republican party in North Carolina ought to resent Secretary Taft's effort to blame office-quarreling Southern Republicans for the fact that the South is solid. The Republicans here as well as the Democrats know that the National Republican party is as much if not more responsible for a Solid South. We do not know but that we can assert that the National Republican party is solely responsible.

As a matter of course Secretary Taft's speech was largely an evploitation of what the Republican party and the Roosevelt administration has done. However, it seems that his speech was not to launch Taft's boom for the Presidency, but it appears that he came as part of President Roosevelt's plan to secure harmony among North Carolina Republicans and build up a Republican party in North Carolina. In the failure of such an effort North Carolina will continue to be happy.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—Grover Cleveland boasts that he has never had a manuscript rejested and yet he hesitates to send a communication to the literary department of the Bryan boomers.—Washington Post.

—The election of a State Republican chairman may after all be the snapping of the link that holds the feeble chain of the party together. But what care the ambitious leaders? —Raleigh Times.

—Some of the Congressmen who insisted that the labels shall do no more lying have gone home to tell their constituents how hard they worked for them during the session.—Washington Post.

—The new mill town to be built on the Southern four miles north of Concord is to be called Cannopolis. As it will represent an investment of about two million dollars, will take electric power from the Yadkin and will embrace the most progressive ideas in cotton mill building and equipment, we can afford to overlook any sort of a name they may give it.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—Although the treaty with Santo Domingo has not been ratified by the Senate, its terms have been carried out for over a year under the surveillance of American controllers of customs and officers of the navy. A squadron of four cruisers, including one armored vessel, has been ordered to the island to see that American interests, i. e., the stipulations of the treaty, are observed. One way of putting a treaty in effect seems to be to induce the Senate to postpone action thereon.—Philadelphia Record.

—In the opening sentence of his speech at Greensboro last night, Secretary of War Taft stated that the committee which invited him there asserted that "the political situation was such that if a proper effort was made at the coming election, it would be possible to carry the State for the Republican party." The committee may have convinced the Secretary that this was the case, but it is safe to say that they did not fool themselves to the same extent, if by carrying the State is meant securing a majority of the Congressmen.—Charlotte Observer.

—The Seaboard Air Line is evidently getting in better financial shape. The New York Times says that Friday the directors of the Seaboard Company, the holding company for the Seaboard Air Line's seucrities, declared a semi-annual dividend of 2½ per cent on the company's first preferred on July 15. This is the first declaration of a regular semi-annual dividend on the stock. Early this year there was paid to the stockholders an adjustment of the dividends for the four months which ended on December 31 last. This payment was made in accordance with the plan of organization. Now the directors have begun the payment of regular semi-annual dividends at the rate of 5 per cent. a year, the full rate to which the stock is entitled.—Charlotte Chronicle.

MEN ARE POWERLESS

To Fight Against Disease Unless They Strike at the Underlying Cause.

To treat Dandruff, and Falling Hair, with irritants or oils on which a parasitic germ will prosper, is like scooping water from the ocean to prevent the tide from rising.

You cannot accomplish a satisfactory cure without having a right understanding of the fundamental causes of the trouble.

You must kill the Dandruff Germ.

Newbro's Herpicide does this because it is specially made to do that very thing.

When the germ is removed, the hair has no choice but to resume healthy growth and beauty.

I take this method of thinking you for the kind support given me in the past, and at same time announce myself a candidate for renomination to the office of County Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Governor Glenn has offered a reward of $75 for the capture of John M. Bailey, the negro who shot in cold blood and killed another negro on the streets of Charlotte June 1st.

—Raleigh News and Observer: Young Ray Cameron, the lad who was shot with a pistol on the Fourth of July, is rapidly recovering, although his condition is still dangerous.

—The Elizabeth City Chamber of Commerce in session Monday, after a heated discussion engaged in by several members, passed resolutions favoring the bridging of Albemarle Sound by the Norfolk and Southern Railroad.

—At the meeting of the board of aldermen of Raleigh on Monday night the report of the dispensary for the second quarter, showed the following: Sales for April, $18,580.10; sales for May, $20,436.20; Sales for June, $18,787.50; total, $57,803.80; bank balance, April 1st $16,172.34; total $73,976.14; total expenses, $40,403.29.

—A bulletin just issued by the Census Bureau of the United States government shows that Winston-Salem leads every city in North Carolina in the value of manufactured products, in the increase since 1900 in the amount of capital invested, and in the amount of wages paid. Had Salem and Southside not been included in the figures given the showing would have been even better.

—The crop situation in Hyde county has not improved. Advices tell of the continuation of the heavy rains which have already damaged crops beyond hope of recovery. Farmers in that section and other counties are very much discouraged. Pasquotank farmers are beginning to suffer. It is stated that another week of such rains as have visited them for the past ten days will do ireparable damage.

—Louisburg special, July 9: John Medlin and Dock Young, both white, became engaged in a dispute in a colored restaurant here today, when, so it is stated, Medlin knocked Young down with a pistol blow on the forehead and then shot him, the ball entering and passing through his left thigh. Medlin was arrested, but waived examinaiton and upon the testimony of physicians that the wound was not a dangerous one was bound over to the next term of Superior Court.

—The Kilby Apple Farm, Incorporated, of Taylorsville, Alexander county, with $25,000 total authorized and $3,000 subscribed capital stock, was chartered by the Secretary of State at Raleigh Monday. The object of the concern is to engage in the growing of fruit, the maintenance of orchards and vineyards, raising and selling cattle, and the purchase and sale of timber, lumber and lands adapted to the cultivation and growth of nursery products. The incorporators are: W. T. Rowland, of Taylorsville; E. F. Creswell, J. C. Lenzoex, John B. Ross, of Charlotte, and J. T. Williamson, of Taylorsville.

—Boston special to Charlotte Observer: A queer case coming to light here is that of a negro, Leslie Green, of Lumberton, N. C., who has been working in North Adams. He has turned white, a sort of pinkish white, all over his body with the exception of his forehead, which is black. His case has attracted the attention of physicians and skin specialists and they learned that at his birth, he had a light spot on his side which enlarged steadily until it now covers practically his whole body. He has never been sick or experienced any discomfort and all his four children are black. The medical experts are unable to explain the case.

—Charlotte Observer: Much local interest is being manifested in the case against the Wadesboro lynchers, which is to be tried in Monroe next week. The case, having been transferred under the statute from Anson county, will be called in the Union county court house Monday morning. It is expected that a big delegation of Anson citizens will be present throughout the trial. Rumor has it that a purse approximately $3,000 has been raised among the citizens of Anson and Richmond counties to aid in the defense of those indicted. Certain it is that an expensive array of legal counsel, comprising a majority of the Wadesboro and Monroe bars, has been retained to assist in the defense. The outcome of the trial is being awaited with eager interest.

—Charlotte Observer: It looks a good deal like the President has been converted to the side of the organization in the contest in the Republican party in this State. Yesterday he reappointed Louis N. Grant as postmaster at Goldsboro but named a new candidate for the Greensboro office instead of Robt. P. Frazier, who along with Mr. Grant, failed of confirmation, the Senate adjourning without action. The new appointee is Mr. R. D. Douglas, editor of The Industrial News, the organ of the Adams, or organization faction. Messrs. Grant and Frazier were appointed postmasters in their respective towns a good many months ago, but for some mysterious reason the nominations were never allowed to come fo a vote in the Senate. It has been generally understood that former Senator Butler using Senator Penrose, of Pensylvania, as a medium, was the one who delayed action.

—Greensboro special to Charlotte Observer, July 9th: Mr. Richard N. Hackett, Democratic candidate for Congress in the eighth district, is here tonight. He has just received the following letter from his opponent, Congressman Spencer Blackburn whom he challenged to a joint debate. "I am in receipt of your letter suggesting an agreement for a joint canvass and have referred the asme to the chairman of my committee." This is equivalent to declining the challenge, for it was said authoritatively some time ago that the committee was opposed to a joint debate. This will not do Blackburn any good here tomorrow. Many of his friends are disappointed on account of his failure to accept the challenge. Mr. Hackett did not consult his committee.

—Winston-Salem special, July 9th: One citizen claims that the motive for dynamiting the City Hall at Kernersville was revenge. Another says that it shows that the people of the town are dissatisfied with the manner in which they are being governed. Another asserts that the feeling against the policemen was the cause of it, while Landlord Willis, of the hostelry of that name, says that all the other town property was burned and, as there was a mortgage on the calaboose, some of the boys thought that they would blow the mortgage off the building so that the town could have one thing it could call its own. One rumor in circulation this morning was that Policeman Samuels would resign today and that peace would once again hover over Kernersville. The other report was that a warrant would be sworn out against Policeman Samuels on a charge growing out of some recent matter prior to the dynamiting of the building by some one.

—The Charlotte Observer's Greensboro representative sent this on Monday night: Late tonight as pedestrians passed down the east side of South Elm street they could see a wiry-built man through a window in a room on the second floor of the Benbow. The man in question was in his shirt sleeves. His arms were kept busy making gestures to a crowd of enthusiastic men who faced him. So long as the speaker kept his back to the street no one could recognize him, but when he turned and the full glow of the street light fell on his dark, pointed beard and his fox-like features the most casual acquaintance would know that he beheld ex-Senator Marion Butler. This well-known native of North Carolina was busy. While others mingled with the multitude he conferred with mighty men of the Republican party. He was the centre of attraction and although it was unfair to stand on the outside and watch him, one could not withstand a temptation.

A PROGRESSIVE FIRM.

Dry Goods Economist Has Pleasant Reference to Platt & Haar.

The following is from a recent issue of the Dry Goods Economist, a leading trade paper of New York:

"Among the callers at The Economist office this week was G. Henry Haar, of Platt & Haar, Wilmington, N. C. The firm, who are now located at 114 Market street, have leased the store at 9 North Front street, formerly occupied by the C. W. Polvogt Company, and will occupy same about October 1st. The new premises will afford three times the space furnished by the present store and several new departments will be added, including ready-to-wear garments and carpets. The firm of Platt & Haar is composed of young, aggressive business men and the fact that within three years from their embarking in business they find it necessary to treble their facilities is the best evidence of their enterprise and success."

JUSTICE BORNEMANN'S COURT.

Several Interesting Cases Tried Yesterday—Deaf and Dumb.

It is Justice Bornemann's court where the richest experiences are to be had and the novelties of the law are to be witnessed. Yesterday the "Judge" had two ladies in his court, both of whom were deaf and dumb and who had fallen out with another because one had slapped a child of the other. The communication was by means of signs and writings, but the Magistrate, as he usually does, managed to get at the bottom of the affair and the aggressor in the trouble was found guilty. In consideration of her affliction, however, she was let off with the costs.

In another case yesterday in which Ida Telfair, a negress, was charged with an assault, it was adjudged a frivolous prosecution and the prosecutor was taxed with the costs. The defendant was represented by Marsden Bellamy, Jr., Esq.

THE SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENTS

Meeting of Southeastern District At Wrightsville Beach Next Month.

The eighth and ninth of August have been selected as the dates and the Hotel Tarrymoore as the place for the meeting of the association of county school superintendents of the Southeastern District, announcement of which was made some time ago. Prof. Washington Catlett, of this city, secretary and treasurer of the Association, is busy at work on a programme for the meeting and is expecting a large attendance. Among the speakers will be State Superintendent J. Y. Joyner, of Raleigh, and Prof. J. B. Carlyle, of the chair of Latin in Wake Forest College, and one of the ablest speakers on educational subjects in the South. In additon to the principal speakers there will be a discussion of topics by the superintendents themselves. A number of members of the Association will bring their wives and families and altogether it is expected that the gathering will bring a hundred or more visitors to the beach.

Died at Phoenix, N. C.

Mrs. Sarah Robbins, wife of Mr. William Robbins, of Phoenix, N. C., passed away Monday evening at her home, aged about 70 years. She was the mother of Messrs. O. A. and W. B. Robbins, who are so well-known in Wilmington, and leaves besides them to mourn their loss, the husband and two daughters (Mrs. S. E. Chinnis and Miss M. E. Robbins.). They have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement. The funeral was conducted at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and the interment was in the family burying ground.

—Rev. Dr. R. F. Campbell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Asheville, N. C., will conduct prayer meeting service at the First Presbyterian church, corner Third and Orange streets, this evening at 8:15 P. M., the pastor, Dr. Wells, being absent.

A VALUABLE REPORT

surroundings the country enrollment is greater, in proportion both among the white children and the negroes.

Average Daily Attendance—The average daily attendance is 288 for whites and 433 for negroes. City daily average attendance, 1,521 for whites; 717.8 for negroes.

Taxable Property—The taxable property for last ytar was: Whites, $11,410,527; negroes, $517,451. Total, $11,[illegible], a gain over the previous year of $578,771. It is thought the value just listed in June will be still greater. The Treasurer reports $43,682.92, including a balance of $4,856 from previous year with expenditures during the year, $36,449.41. Of this $20.190 was spent for white teachers, of which $4,295 was paid the rural teachers and $15,895 to city teachers; $6,945 was paid to negro teachers, of which the rural teachers received $2,525 and the city $4,420. The average salary of rural teachers has been $39.25 for whites, $32.22 for negroes.

School Buildings—There are 14 school buildings in the rural districts for whites and 12 for negroes. This is an increase of two for whites and one for negroes. These new buildings have been erected mainly by private donation, only about $300 has been given by the Board of Education from the school fund. The value of this property is: White, $8,150; negro, $5,800. Total, $13,950 in the country. In the city, white, $85,000; negro, $11,000. Total, $96,000. All of these houses are properly insured.

Libraries—There are 12 libraries for whites, with 1,333 volumes, besides four circulating libraries loaned by the Sorosis Society, for which we are very grateful. There are 11 libraries in the negro schools, with 1,037 volumes. Three new libraries have been added this year for whites, with two supplementary and two new ones for negroes.

Teachers' Meetings—Regular monthly meetings have been held for teachers during the year. Interesting addresses by scholarly gentlemen have been made and methods have been taught and discussed by the superintendent and the teachers. The superintendent has also made several addresses on education to the people. He has visited the schools regularly as the school law requires. He observed closely the work of the teachers; taught and examined the children and made short speeches to the schoolis.

Music—Our music teacher was taken sick before the session closed, which prevented this most necessary feature being kept up. I earnestly ask that the Board will provide a music teacher and if practicable accept the offer made by a benevolent gentleman interested in our rural schools, to present a buggy for the use of the music teacher if a horse can be secured.

Meeting of Committeemen—During the month of May I called together all the committeemen of the county, thinking it wise to have them talk over methods and means for the betterment of the schools. I met with a hearty response and nearly every committeeman was present. Mr. Rountree, of the Board, attended and made a most practical, earnest and helpful talk to them. I believe much good will result from this meeting if I can judge by remarks which have been subsequently made. In speaking of consolidation of districts, a committee was appointed at this meeting to formulate some plan for consolidating and grading the rural schools. They suggest the following:

A suitable building shall be erected a few miles below Myrtle Grove school, District No. 3, which will draw from Districts No. 4, Masonboro; 8 Oak Hill; 16 South Wilmington, and No. 3. A second building at Delgado, which will take pupils from Wrightsville, No. 5; East Wilmington, No. 7; Greenville Sound, No. 14, and Delgado, No. 15. A third building in Middle Sound, District No. 13, will take from said district, also Acorn Branch No. 6, Scott's Hill, No. 11, and possibly Rock Hill, No. 12. This will leave Castle Haynes, No. 10, out of the list, but the village is expected to grow from settlers and perhaps in the future a village school may be required. District No. 9 in the far southern end of the county, is also left out as being too distant to transport the children.

The children from Greenville Sound and Wrightsville are to be brought to Delgado by suitable contract with the Consolidated Co. In the other districts the children from a distance are to be transported by wagon.

Compulsory Education—This meeting of committeemen seemed wonderfully unanimous that compulsory education is necessary to draw out the most illiterate, and enable the school authorities to reach the entire people. The trend of thought and argument at a recent meeting of the county superintendents in Raleigh was toward the enactment of suitable laws for compulsory education.

Fines and Forfeitures—The fines and forfeitures have been duly collected and are as follows: Superior Court, $553.60; City Court, $1,164.60; from all other courts, $896.60. Total, $2,614.80.

(Here is given a special report of each district in detail as to census, average daily attendance, condition of buildings, grounds, etc.)

Conclusion—In closing the year's work, I beg to thank the members of this Board for their aid and encouragement in my work. I am quite sure that their watchfulness over the finances and their business-like management of the same, together with their earnest interest in the work have been large factors in the success that has been attained.

Very respectfully,
W. CATLETT, Supt.
Wilmington, N. C., July 2nd, 1906.

FAYETTEVILLE WINS

etteville; Taylor, of Harnett; MacRae, of Robeson, and Bellamy, of Brunswick.

In the question of selecting the place, it appeared to have been the field against Brown, of Columbus, whose friends were in favor of bringing the convention to Wilmington. The other candidates are Godwin, of Harnett; Cook, of Cumberland, and Patterson, the present incumbent, from Robeson. This allignment, it is said, will be continued in the convention and a long drawn out fight is expected for the nomination, with dark horses tied out all over the lot. It will be a most interesting gathering and the committeemen here yesterday said that their respective counties would be well represented in Fayetteville.

The delegates from New Hanover have not yet been amed. Mr. Boney, chairman of the recent county convention, to whom was delegated the authority of naming the delegates with the assistance of an advisory committee which he appointed some time ago, said last night that the delegates from New Hanover would be appointde by the end of the week. Whether the delegates will be named solidly for Brown or whether the other candidates, who claim strength in the county, will be given representation or not, remains to be seen. The personnel of the delegation is being awaited with interest all over the district.

POLICE COURT YESTERDAY.

Vagrants Before the Mayor Again—Highway Robbery Case.

The police are continuing to wage a relentless warfare against vagrancy in all its forms, but especially in the cases of trifling men and women who infest certain alleys of the city and make night and day hideous for residents in the neighborhood by their disorder. Eight such were before the Mayor in the police court again yesterday. Two of them succeeded in escaping by proving recent employment, a third, a mere strip of a colored girl, was released upon payment of a fine by her mother, and five others were given terms on the county farm and roads. Those who escaped were Martha Wiggins and Will LeGrand, grown, and Fleet Bacchus, the girl reclaimed by her mother. Those sentenced were Lizzie Jackson, Mary Murphy, Grace Cochrane, Mamie Garfield and Joe Blocker, all colored.

Jake Conner, one of those arrested in the police round-up of vagrants, was wanted for the robbery of an excursionist at the Carolina Central depot some time ago, he having evaded arrest until now. He was given preliminary trial and although the excursionist was not present to appear against him, Ed. Highsmith and other colored witnesses were and Conner was bound over to the higher court. In default of $50 bond he went to jail.

Donas Walker, a small colored boy, charged with shining shoes after hours, was discharged with a reprimand and warning. Other cases before the court yesterday were trifling.

R. WOOLVIN'S NEW BUILDING.

Permits Issued Yesterday For Handsome Structure on Princess St.

A building permit was issued yesterday for the handsome three-story stone and brick building which Mr. James F. Woolvin will erect on the lot of land on Princess street, recently purchased from the county. The contractors are Messrs. Jno. Niggel and R. H. Brady and the cost is given at $12,500. It will be of asphalt roof, steam heated throughout and will be used for residence and business purposes. Work will begin at once on the portion of the building to be occupied by Mr. Woolvin himself and this will necessitate the tearing away of the east wing of the old Court House at once.

HER BROTHER SHOT.

Miss Ida Black Receives Distressing News From Texas.

Miss Ida Black, of this city, yesterday received the distressing intelligence that her brother, Mr. Henry O. Black, had accidentally shot himself while cleaning a revolver at his home in Texas on July 3rd., and as the result of the wound died the same evening. Miss Black was almost prostrated with grief at the sad news and will leave this morning to convey the distressing intelligence to her mother and other relatives at Point Caswell and to be with them in their sorrow. Mr. Black leaves a wife and two children to mourn their loss in Texas and several sisters and brothers in this State. Their friends will tenderly sympathize with them in their bereavement. Mr. Black was buried at Columbia, Tex., the home of his wife.

Offering of Slater's Comedians at Academy To-night.

Unfortunately only a small audience witnessed the production at the Academy of Music last night, but those who were present were eminently well pleased with the show. The specialties were all new and refined and these were enjoyed quite as much as was the regular bill. To-night the company presents "My Awful Wife," which is said to be one of the very best bills in the company's repertoire. Popular prices prevail and seats are now on sale at Plummer's.

PACKERS ARE ACTING RIGHT.

Show Every Disposition to Comply With Demands of Government.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Chicago, July 10.—Secretary of Agriculture Wilson continued his investigation of the Union stockyards to-day and made a trip through several of the plants before breakfast. He continued his investigation until late in the morning and expressed himself satisfied with what he saw there.

"It seems to me," said the Secretary, "that the packers are working with commendable vigor to make improvements and I understood that there will be no let up in the work until they have fixed things as the government wants them."

Later in the day Secretary Wilson addressed the superintendents of government meat inspection employed in the cities where the large packing houses are located. About thirty of them were present. Each was carefully instructed by the Secretary in the new methods of inspection according to the law recently passed by Congress.

Secretary Wilson expects to finish his work here to-morrow.

TELEPHONE MARVEL THAT TALKS OUT

Wonderful Invention of Danish Genius—New Office Equipment That Transforms Speech—Advantages of Invention.

(Baltimore Sun.)

Wireless telegraphy has prepared us for almost any kind of inventive wizardy. But the "Danish Edison," Valdemar Poulsen, has come forward to prove that there are things quite as mysterious as aerograms. For a demonstration of this fact one has only to talk into the receiver of the Poulsen "telegraphone," have his words invisably registered upon the wire or disk that takes the place of the wax records of a phonograph and then hear his remarks repeated with distinctness that is startling.

So far as the untutored observer can see there is nothing about the mechanism of the telegraphone to account for its performances. In a phonograph it is easy to follow the convolutions of the steel pin scratching its way about over the wax cylinder or tracing a devious path in the grooves of a permanent hard rubber record. There is nothing so obvious about the Poulsen machine.

In this the voice is recorded in the form of electro-magnetic impressions upon a thin steel disc or wire, one hundredth of an inch in diameter. There is not a scratch, indentation mark of any kind to indicate that the wire or disc has recorded anything. But start the reproducing mechanism going, pick up the ear-piece, and the apparently blank record gives forth whatever has been talked into it. There is no scratching sound, the words coming from the machine as clearly as from a human throat. The faintest whisper or even heavy breathing is recorded and reproduced in the same way. The record is automaticaly erased by a stronger magnet as a new record is put on or the record can be permanently retained for future reference.

When its invention was first announced the telegraphone attracted much attention from electrical experts and the physicists, Sir William Preece, said that it marked an era in the investigation of the molecular character of all magnetic and electric operations. Lord Kelva Tesla, Marconi, Prof. Sylvanus Thompson and others bore testimony to the extraordinary perfection of the "recording and speaking telephone." Technicap papers described its wonders, and then for a period little was heard of it. But all the time the inventor, aided by American experts, has been transforming his experimental model into a thoroughly practical piece of office equipment, for which the demand has already outrun the supply. An American company has been formed to control the invention, which promises to make as many fortunes as were made by the Mergenthaler typesetting machines.

The principle of operation is the same in the wire and disk machines, the main difference being that with a mile or two of fine steel strands, compactly wound on a spool of wire allows for half an hour's continuous disctation.

For correspondence purposes the beauty of the telegraphone is that the typewriter operator can transcribe at any distance from the recording instrument; that is, any distance covered by the scope of the telephone. There is no carrying about of records or cylinders. All the typist needs to do is to take up his end of the connecting wire, press a button and proceed to put into type the words that come through the receiver from the machine, which may just as well be 100 miles away as 10 feet away. Or the machine and operator may be in an isolated room and the dictation carried on over a wire from another office. One push button starts the machine, another stops it and a third one reverses it.

Wall Street brokers were the first to see the possibilities of the telegraphone as a piece of office machinery. By connecting it with the telephone a word-by-word record of everything that comes or goes over the wire is made. If there is a dispute over an order to sell or buy stocks the telegraphone record of the customer's voice shows what his instructions were. The advertising department of a daily newspaper, where a great many orders are received by 'phone, and where misunderstandings are frequent, uses a telegraphone to make a magnetic transcript of everything that passes over the wire. In this way the one weakness of the telephone as a means of communication—that it keeps no record—has been eliminated.

There is already a scheme on foot to equip a large hotel so that the guests in their rooms by using the telephone can be placed in instant connection with the telegraphones located in the typewriting room of the hotel, dictate letters and have them delivered ready for signature within a few minutes. The same plan has been suggested for a New York office building, providing means of quick dictation to machines located in the central typewriting establishment. The steel discs used are so light that they can be mailed for 2 cents, if one wishes to send a letter or a speech and have it delivered in his own voice at some distant point.

At least one office in the New York financial district is so equipped that every word spoken in one of the rooms may be taken down by a telegraphone noiseleasly, but industriously, eavesdropping in the vicinity of the unawary caller. There is no means of knowing that there is a witness present who will give testimony at the push of a button. It is well within the bounds of probability that the proceedings of board meetings will come to be recorded in this way. In the meantime it is well to avoid making compromising statements in vicinities where telegraphones may be concealed.

BIG INCREASE IN COTTON MILLS

Wonderful Development of Textile Industry in South—North Carolina Now Has 206 Cotton Mills.

(Charlotte Chronicle.)

The Southern Railway Company has issued a Textile Directory, giving the number and rate of increase of Southern cotton mills. The Chronicle has not seen a copy of the work, but uses some facts condensed from it by The Baltimore Sun. It appears that in January of the present year there were in the States traversed by the Southern's lines, 173,284 looms and 6,977,516 spindles, an increase over the previous year of 8,793 looms and 326,566 spindles. At the date named there were in preparation 3,156 looms and 105,264 spindles. Virginia had 17 mills and 188,354 spindles; Tennessee, 12 mills and 124,716 spindles; South Carolina, 148 mills and 2,861,330 spindles; North Carolina, 206 mills and 1,733,221 spindles; Mississippi, 8 mills and 38,216 spindles; Georgia, 78 mills and 1,071,007 spindles; Alabama, 39 mills and 546,255 spindles. Knitting machines numbered 10,137, with 644 sewing machines and 58,784 spindles. Woolen mills had 188 sets of cards, 3,154 looms and 101,601 spindles. These figures indicate that the textile movement in the South is a very considerable one.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, July 10.—The cotton market was more active to-day and ruled firmer on covering of shorts and a little more active buying for long account. The close was firm at a net advance of 6 to 13 points. Sales for the day were estimated at 100,000 bales.

The opening was steady at a decline of 1 point to an advance of one point, which was about in line with the cables. Trading was quiet at the start and shortly after the call it looked as though some of the local professionals were trying to break the market on the favorable daily weather reports. Their offerings were promptly absorbed, however, and the market during the middle session developed more activity and advanced quite sharply as compared with the recent narrowness of fluctuations. The weekly report of the weather bureau was without influence, being followed by some slight irregularity and the high point of the session was reached in the late trading with the close within a point or two of the top. Some further reports of less promising prospects for the crops in the eastern belt were received, but the bulk of private crop advices remain favorable and the buying movement seemed to be based more upon the recent steadiness of the market in the face of bearish conditions and the apprehension of crop deterioration than upon any change in the situation.

Receipts at the ports to-day 5,680 bales against 5,621 last week and 21,501 last year. For the week 25,000 bales against 25,572 last week and 85,703 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 2,382 bales against 1,769 last year and at Houston 691 bales against 4,224 last year.

NOVELTIES FOR LAWN FETES

Whether or not the Japanese are to be regarded as the "yellow peril" of the coming day, they certainly supply us with a good many artistic inspirations for the present one. What the garden party would be without Japanese decorations and assessories one cannot imagine, they have become so indespensable to the American hostess.

In planning a lawn party for these midsummer days, the hostess turns naturally to the land of the Flowering Almond for suggestions. If she aims at novelty the whole affair is given a Japanese aspect throughout, even to the costumes of those present. What could be more appropriate for hot weather wear than the "comfy" flowing kimonas of silk or crepe that the little yellow people wear so effectively? Of course, the men might raise something of a fuss, for there is nothing the masculine hate more fervently than "dressing up," but perhaps even mere man would prove amendable to persuasion if the party were held under the protecting shades of evening.

For the Japanese lawn party the piazza generally provides a basis for the decorative scheme. Japanese matting covers the floor and an arrangement of Japanese unbrellas combined with American and Japanese flags, in paper, ornaments the ceiling. For the rest the whole porch may be turned into a grove of cherry blossom or wistaria. The Japanese importing houses now make a specialty of artificial flowers for such purposes, and when a quantity is bought special rates may be obtained.

If the porch be too small to admit of much decoration, the flower sprays may be hung from the trees and shrubs in the garden, or a temporary arbor may be erected and the scheme carried out in that.

Butterflies and moths of all sizes and descriptions, which can be manufactured at home out of colored paper, wire and cotton batting, may be suspended on silken threads by means of fine wire on the floral sprays. These winged creatures give a very pretty effect as they sway to and fro in the breeze.

Then to add brilliancy to the scene Japanese lanterns, large and small, must be hung wherever there is a hanging space. The newest of these to American eyes are the grotesque fish lanterns, made to represent the Japanese fish god. The lanterns, of course, are lighted only in the evening, but they present a striking effect even under daylight, especially when interspersed with big peonies made of white or crimson crepe paper.

to secure funds to erect an experimental plant and on the practical results of which all future sales of stock are to depend.

From these conflicting statements, The Tradesman feels warranted in suggesting to the cotton producers and people of the South that they demand from the officers of this company the fullest explanation of its plans and how its capital stock has been distributed and for what an equivalent; and we request the press of the South to aid us in this matter to the end that no stock of this company shall be sold or offered for sale save under the conditions set forth by Mr. Harding.

FERTILIZER MEN BEFORE COURT

ARE WANTED IN TENNESSEE

Requisition Issued for Them for Trial at Knoxville for Violating Anti-Trust Laws—Bail Required of Them for Appearance.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Richmond Va., July 10.—Samuel T. Morgan, president of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, Fortesque Whittle, one of the managing directors, and J. Rice Smith, a sales-agent of the corporation, under indictment for alleged violation of the Sherman law, forbidding companies and combines from doing anything in restraint of trade and commerce, were today before Judge Waddill in the United States District Court. The proceedings are in the nature of extraditon cases, the object of the assistant attorney general, Edward T. Sanford, of Knoxville, who is prosecuting, being to obtain an order for their removal to the middle district of Tennessee for trial. The Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company officers are included in a list of forty or fifty officers of different corporations indicted for the same alleged offense. Other indicted men involved in today's proceeding are: F. S. Royster, of the Independent Fertilizer Company, of Norfolk, and J. G. Tinsley, vice president of the Tennessee Chemical Company. A preliminary application was made by Mr. Sanford for warrants for the arrest of the indicted officers, all of whom were present. A warrant of arrest was issued against Judge Tinsley, whose case was the first taken up. The defense began their fight with a sweeping denial of the charges.

The defense having challenged the certified copies of the indictments, Judge Waddell announced that he would later give a decision on the question whether these certified copies should be accepted as evidence sufficient upon which to base a commitment.

Late this afternoon Judge Waddill decided that "it was the duty of the court to properly bail" the persons whose removal to Tenessee is asked "for appearance before the court in which they are indicted, or cause them to be removed thereto."

Attorney Sanford immediately asked the court to fix the bail and Judge Waddill announced that the bail would be fixed at the opening of court tomorrow.

CAROLINA YOUTH SHOT TO DEATH

Murdered Yesterday Afternoon at Norfolk by Man Thirty Years Old

TWO BULLETS FIRED INTO HIM

Victim Was Frank Spence, of South Mills, N. ., and Slayer Charles A. O'Connor—Boy Accused of Slander.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Norfolk, Va., July 10.—Because Frank Spence a 17-year old boy is alleged to have circulated a report detrimental to his character, Charles A. O'Connor, known as "Chunk" O'Connor, 30 years old, this afternoon shot the boy to death at Pine Beach, a popular Summer resort near the Jamestown Exposition grounds.

O'Connor fired two bullets from a 38 calibre revolver, both of them taking effect in the boy's throat. Death was instantaneous. Both parties were employed at the resort. O'Connor is a brother of John F. O'Connor, an undertaker and prominent citizen of Portsmouth. The dead boy was from South Mills, N. C., and had only been in this section a short time. The body will be sent home for interment.

GIVING UP COAL HOLDINGS

Pennsylvania Railroad Requiring Employes to Get Rid of Stock.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Philadelphia, July 10.—A conference was held here to-day which was participated in by a number of officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, including General Manager Atterbury, Superintendent George W. Creighton, of Altoona, and Superintendent R. L. O'Donnell, of Buffalo. The main subject of discussion was President Cassatt's order requiring employes to dispose of their holdings of coal stock.

Mr. Creighton and Mr. O'Donnell acknowledged before the Inter-State Commerce Commission that they had been given blocks of coal stock and it is understood General Manager Atterbury insisted that these gentlemen dispose of the stock.

More than 2,500 notices signed by President Cassatt have been sent to company officials directing them to get rid of whatever interest they may hold in any coal mining or coal selling concern. It is understood that a determined effort is being made to enforce President Cassatt's order and thus clear the company of the unpleasant scandal which followed the revelations at the Inter-State Commerce Commission meetings in this city.

HARRY K. THAW IS NOT CRAZY

Slayer of Stanford White Denies That He is Mentally Unbalanced and Protests Against Examination by Any Lunacy Commission

HANDED STATEMENT TO NEWSPAPERS

PRESS REPRESENTATIVES FIRED QUESTIONS AT HIM BUT HE SMILED AND SAID NOTHING—THEATRICAL MANAGER DECLARES THAW ACTED LIKE CRAZY MAN ABOUT PRETTY CHORUS GIRL—EDNA M'CLURE DENIES SAYING THAW THREATENED WHITE.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New York, July 10.—Harry Kendall Thaw tonight, in the Tombs prison, gave out his first formal statement since he shot and killed Stanford White on the Madison Square roof garden. In it the young man utters a protest against being regarded as insane and declares his counsel assure him that such course as the appointment of a commission to inquire into his mental condition is contemplated. The statement was handed by Thaw in person to the newspaper representatives. He gave it out with the permission of his counsel, with whom he pleaded all day to be allowed to deny in person the current reports as to his insanity, and especially the publication yesterday afternoon of a purported interview with one of his counsel quoting the attorney as saying the prisoner was undoubtedly insane.

Young Thaw's statement follows:

"I am informed by Mr. Olcott and Mr. Gruber that the interview with the latter in one of last evening's papers quoting him (Gruber) to the effect that I am now insane and that a lunatic commission would be appointed to determine that fact, has no foundation whatever; that Mr. Gruber never made such a statement and that no such course is contemplated.

"Mr. Olcott further tells me that he did not go to Philadelphia for the purpose of seeing or inquiring about Harriet Thaw or her alleged insanity and that his visit had nothing whatever to do with the question of my mental conditon or that of any member of my family."

The statement was signed with the initials "H. K. T."

When asked if he had anything further to remark, Thaw said:

"That statement embodies what I have to say."

Judge Olcott, leading counsel for Thaw, when asked about the prisoner's statement said:

"Harry had been pestering me all day to make a statement to the newspapers. Finally at his request I outlined in a general way what Harry wished to say and left it with him to be typewritten. It was his desire that he should hand it in person to the newspaper men and I gave him that permission."

When Thaw was ready to give out the statement the newspaper men were marshaled into the corridor on the first tier. Thaw was not there at the time but a keeper went to the foot of the stairs and sang out:

"Second tier. Send down Thaw."

In a moment, as if he had been impatiently waiting the summons, Thaw came down the stairs, smoking his bull dog briar pipe and after a few words of common place introduction, handed the statement to the reporters. He was dressed in the same light double breasted suit he wore on the day of his arraignment.

Despite the rapid fire of questions hurled at him by the reporters, he remained smiling, but non-committal, during four or five minutes he was with the press representatives.

Assistant District Attorney Garvan continued today vigorously to prosecute his inquiry into the case and had before him several prospective witnesses. Among them were James L. Lederer, of Philadelphia, who was manager of "The Wild Rose" theatrical company at the time Evelyn Nesbit, now Mrs. Thaw, was a member of the organization; Miss MacKenzie, an actress and friend of Mrs. Thaw, and Mary Leahy, Mrs. Thaw's maid.

Mr. Lederer told the assistant district attorney that it was his belief young Thaw is crazy. He based his opinion on the man's actions during the time Miss Nesbit was a member of "The Wild Rose" company.

Miss MacKenzie and the maid were questioned but briefly, being told to report again next week for a further examination.

Edna MacClure, the actress who was examined by Mr. Garvan Sunday afternoon, denied that she made many of the statements contributed to her in the newspapers, saying emphatically that she did not tell the assistant district attorney of any threats she is supposed to have heard Thaw make again White.

The District Attorney's office issued a subpoena this afternoon for Mrs. Beatrice Schwartz to appear in John Doe proceedings before the grand jury. It is said the District Attorney wishes to question Mrs Schwartz as to alleged threats she overheard Thaw make against White. Earlier in the day counsel for Mrs. Schwartz declared she would not appear before the District Attorney.

Mrs. Thaw visited her husband today, remainng about an hour and a half. After she had left the prison Thaw was visited by an alienist, recently retained by the defense. This was Dr. Charles L. Dana. Dr. Dana brought a letter from Dr. Allen McLane Hamilton, chief of the corps of alienists in the service of Thaw's lawyers, and after Thaw had read the letter, he submitted to an examination.

Another Witness.

Pittsburg, July 10.—It was learned here to-day that a witness that will appear in the Thaw case when it comes to trial in New York will be Paul Dorn, of this city, who Harry Thaw took to Europe several years ago, and who returned alone two months after sailing. Dorn, when seen to-day would say little about his connection with Thaw. He would not say why he returned so soon when he expected to remain longer nor give any details of his visit abroad. Dorn also said he had been instructed to keep his mouth shut and not to say a word until he had heard from Thaw's attorneys.

When asked when he expected to go to New York, Dorn said:

"I don't know. But I am ready to go whenever Mrs. Thaw is willing to give me an interview and I won't talk, either in the court or out of it until I have seen her."

"Did you ever meet Bedford, the valet, whom Harry Thaw engaged at Southampton?"

"Yes, I did and it is too bad that Bedford died."

Dorn was asked what he meant by that and replied:

"Well, he was a good fellow, and if he had lived and had to tell all the things he knew it would not look so rosy for Harry Thaw."

"How do you know that Bedford knew all these things?"

"Well, wasn't I there."

"Did you know Stanford White?"

"No. But I heard of him at that time."

"I will go to New York," said Dorn, "and tell what I know and it wouldn't take very long to do it, but it will be enough."

FARMERS' CONVENTION.

Over Four Hundred in Raleigh For Annual Meeting.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 10.—The third annual session of the North Carolina State Farmers' Convention was called to order at noon to-day for a meeting extending through three days. The opening address was by Commissioner of Agriculture S. L. Patterson, who congratulated the farmers on the progress being made in the agricultural interests of the State and the necessity for closer co-operation and the employment of the most improved methods of farming.

Governor R. B. Glenn delivered the address of welcome, and in that connection dwelt on the necessity of the most improved methods, both in machinery and the treatment of the soils. He appealed for co-operation in his efforts to attract desirable immigrants to this State, especially farm labor with a view to relieving the handicap the farmers in many sections are under for want of adequate labor.

President C. C. Moore, of the Farmers' Association, who arrived from Charlotte this morning, responded to the address by the Governor and assured him of the hearty sympathy of the farmers in the efforts of the Governor not only as to immigration, but in all the other efforts he is making for the industrial development of the State.

The principal feature of the session this afternoon was the address by Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes on "Ten Years Progress in Agriculture," showing the wonderful strides that have been made in that time. There were a number of addresses on technical farming topics. There are already over four hundred farmers and their wives here for the convention, which is devoted purely to study and lectures on farming methods.

WHOLE REGIMENT OPENLY MUTINIES

News of Serious Fighting in Central Russian Garrison Held Up by Censors

ATTACKED BY LOYAL TROOPS

Several Killed and Wounded and Mutineers Victorious—Population in State of Terror—Armed Rebellion in Southern Russia.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Tambov, Central Russia (Sunday), July 8 (Midnight—Held up in transmission).—A mutiny followed by serious fighting has broken out among the troops forming the garrison here, due to an attempt of the military authorities to arrest and disarm the Seventh Reserve Cavalry, who "struck," presenting a series of political and service demands. Taking advantage of a great religious procession to-day the authorities sent the regiment to escort the processionists and preserve order and attempted in the absence of the bulk of the regiment to arrest the men remaining in barracks and stationed at the railway station. The regiment, on hearing of this action, left the procession and galloped to the rescue of their comrades, firing as they rode. They cut their way through other troops to the barracks where they barricaded themselves and beat off repeated attacks of the loyal troops. Shots could still be heard at midnight. The detachment of the Seventh at the railway station cut the telegraph and semaphore wires and is holding out there. An officer of the railroad corps and the commanding officer and a sergeant of the Seventh Cavalry are reported to have been killed, while many were wounded. The procession broke up in a panic and as this dispatch is filed the population is in a state of terror.

Odesa, Russia, July 10.—Agrarian outrages and politico-industrial strikes occur daily and are alarmingly spreading in the southern provinces. The revolting peasantry are now evidently organized and led by professional propagandists, who are clandestinely importing arms.

In an interview to-day a marshal of the nobility of Kherson expressed the firm conviction that the situation is inevitably and rapidly drifting to a colossal and calamitous uprising of the peasants against the land owners and that the movement will be actively supported by the disaffected soldiery.

In Paris last evening Mr. and Mrs Nicholas Longworth received the cordial greetings of a great gathering of members of French and American society people.

INSURANCE MEN HAVE TO ANSWER

Complaints Served Against Officers of Mutual Life Insurance Company.

SUED FOR NEARLY MILLION

Allowed Companies Money to Be Expended Unlawfully—Part of Money Sued for Contributed to Republican Campaign Fund.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, July 10.—Complaints were served in the suits brought by the Mutual Life Insurance Company against Robert S. Grannis, former vice president and trustee, and Walter R. Gillette, former treasurer and trustee of the company. It is alleged against Mr. Grannis that he omitted to scrutinize vouchers which represented money paid for services not authorized. The damage suffered by the company before of these acts amounted, it is alleged, to $200,000. In another cause of action against Mr. Grannis it is charged that he participated in the making of payment out of the assets of the company, aggregating the aum of $92,500, to defray the expenses of campaign contributions to political parties.

Altogether five causes of action against Mr. Grannis are set forth and the total amount for which judgment is asked against him is $917,000 with interest. It is alleged that the former vice president participated in an arrangement by which money was taken from the assets of the company to establish a so-called "confiden... fund," which was expended for objects not within the corporate purposes of the company and beyond its lawful powers.

SHIP WAS BURNING AT SEA.

Clyde Steamship Makes Discovery on Voyage From Wilmington.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New York, July 10.—Upon arrival here to-day the Clyde Line steamer Carib, from Georgetown, S. C., and Wilmington, N. C., reported having sighted the Uruguayan bark Margarita on fire at sea yesterday off the Delaware Capes. The Margarita left Philadelpiha July 3, bound to Halifax, N. S., in command of Captain Alsena.

The Carib ran close by her and Maguire watched for signals of the crew, but apparently they had been taken off by some passing vessel.

The Margarita is a wooden vessel of 550 tons net. She was built in 1871 and is owned in Montevideo. She carried a crew of ten men. The bark was loaded with 780 tons of anthracite coal, valued at $3,600.

THE DRY DOCK DEWEY SAFE IN PHILIPPINES

Successfully Landed at Manila After Voyage of Twelve Thousand Miles—Took 193 Days for Trip—Two Perilous Accidents.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Washington, July 10.—Secretary Bonaparte today sent a cable message of congratulation to Commander Hosley at Olongapo for the successful management of the dry dock Dewey on its long voyage from Chesapeake Bay, in which he said:

"Department deeply appreciates and sincerely congratulates you and the officers and men under your command upon the successful termination of such a difficult undertaking so admirably and excellently accomplished."

This message was forwarded through Rear Admiral Train, commanding the Atlantic station who arrived at Olongapo on the flagship Ohio in time to join in the demonstration in honor of the safe arrival of the Dewey expedition there on Monday, 193 days after it sailed from Solomons Island, Chesapeake bay, having finished the perilous voyage of more than 12,000 miles with an average speed of over 100 miles a day for the time it was in motion.

Twice the drydock was in serious danger. Its first trouble was late in February off the Canaries where it struck a storm and the hawsers connecting it with the towing fleet was broken allowing the great bulk to go adrift. Again in the Mediterranean not far from Malta, early in April, the dock broke loose from its companions and floundered about for a short time.

Great credit is due Commander H. H. Hosley for the masterful manner in which he conducted the Dewey on the long voyage. Commander Harry H. Hosley was today detached from command of the supply dry dock Dewey to the Philippines and authorized to return to the United States.

KILLED NEAR ABERDEEN.

An Ugly Story That Comes Via Raleigh—Other News.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 10.—Governor Glenn issued a commission this evening to B. W. Edwards, of Snow Hill, as a director of the State Hospital for the Insane at Goldsboro, to fill out the unexpired term of the late Dr. E. Porter, of Rocky Point.

E. S. Lathrop is here from Wilmington to open a branch of F. E. Hatcher & Co., of Norfolk, general brokerage and distributing agents.

A young man thought to be named John Phillips died in the Rex Hospital here this afternoon from injuries received in a fight near Aberdeen last night. Considerable indignation is felt on the part of those who know of the treatment received by the injured man at Aberdeen after he was injured. He was in the employ of the contractor re-railing the Seaboard track below Aberdeen and an associate employe attacked him, crushing his skull terribly. An Aberdeen physician went to the scene on a special engine and brought the man to his office. The Seaboard authorities declined to guarantee the cost of treatment on the ground that the track work was being done by contract and they had no relation whatever with the wounded man. There being no one to vouch for the expense of the treatment, the injured man was carried down to the baggage room at the depot, left there without care for four hours or more when a State officer interested several citizens in purse to defray the expense of bringing the man to the Rex hospital here. So far as can be ascertained here the man who dealt the fatal injury to Phillips made good his escape. His name is not known.

A Manila cablegram says: Montalon, the Ladrone leader, surrendered to Colonel Bandholtz, assistant chief of Constabulary at Talisay, July 8 and was removed to Cavite for trial. The capture of Montalon leaves one more ladrone leader at large in Luzon. Chief of Constabulary Allen has announced that all outlaws must stand trial. The government has been criticised for not hastening their capture.

WM. J. BRYAN LIONIZED IN LONDON SOCIETY

Invitations Pouring Upon Him and Mrs. Bryan—Numerous Dinners Given by Officials and Distinguished People—Tour Plans Changed.

ROJESTVENSKY NOT GUILTY.

Officers of One of His Torpedo Boats to Be Shot.

Crosntadt, Russia, July 10.—Admiral Rojestvensky, whose trial on the charge of surrendering to the enemy after the battle of the Sea of Japan, began before a court martial here July 4, was acquitted today after the court had deliberated for nearly ten hours. Four officers of the torpedo boat destroyer Bedovi who were placed on trial with the admiral, were found guilty of having premeditatively surrendered the Bedovi and all four were condemned to death by shooting, but on account of extenuating circumstances, the Emperor will be requested to commute the sentence to dismissal from the service and to be deprived of certain rights which they would otherwise enjoy.
